

ROCKY MOUNTAIN DEPRESSION GLASS SOCIETY
MINUTES
DATE FEBRUARY 21, 2017
EPIPHANY LUTHERAN CHURCH
790 SOUTH CORONA
DENVER, CO

1. The meeting was called to order at 7:00 pm by Sue Dawson.
Eleven members and two guests were present.

2. The minutes of the January 17, 2017, meeting were approved as sent to the membership.
An e-mail from Diane King was read; she is helping the family of a friend to dispose of glass and requested assistance from any person who is willing to help with this project. Her contact information is recorded at the end of these minutes.

Member Carol Yoss attended after a lengthy absence. Welcome back, Carol.

Sue welcomed members and guests, Diane King and Sharon Campbell.

3. Treasurer's report:

There was no report, this evening. However, consensus is that the numbers "cannot be" much different than last month's report.

4. The program, Rare and Unusual Glass, was presented by Harold Keller. Harold brought many of rare and favorite pieces from his collections.

5. Old Business and Announcements:

Sue Dawson will e-mail more information about the Westminster Historical Society Appraisal Fair, February 25.

Front Range Glass Show evaluation: Tom indicated that the owner/organizer raised the possibility of RMDGS having a club booth there.

It may be that there is a new show to be held end of March or early April. Keith Yahn will check on information and let us know at the next meeting: Vintage Whites Market at the National Western Complex.

The program schedule was passed among the membership who attended for any additional programs to be added.

The Wildlife Experience is having a show. Not much information is available about this show.

6. Delicious refreshments were provided by Sue Dawson. Thank you, Sue.

7. The mini-program included: There was no mini program, this evening.

8. Show and tell:

Members brought various pieces of glass and asked for assistance identifying them..

9. The door prize winner was Harold Keller.

10. There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 8:27 pm.
