

Rocky Mountain Depression Glass Society
Minutes June 18, 2019

President, Roberta Hankins, called the meeting to order at 6:57 PM. There were 16 members and one guest, Terry Friedman, present.

The minutes were approved as sent. There was no treasurer's report due to the absence of the treasurer.

Tom Cotter sent around a sign up sheet for refreshments and programs. He also announced that the program theme for July was red, white and blue. Tom reminded members of Jodi's show in Loveland, September 21 and 22, and reminded members that our club will have a booth. Tom will have articles in the Mountain States Collector prior to the show.

Under new business, Roberta noted the request from long time (and now distant - Wisconsin) club member, Eleanor Crandall for a donation to the Heisey Museum. Marj Becker made a motion to donate $100 in honor of Eleanor; Tom Cotter seconded the motion. The motion carried.

Library books in tubs #13-15 were out for members to peruse.

The main program was facilitated by Roberta Hankins and featured ashtrays and other smoking items including lighters. Roberta's collection started with Candlewick and Paneled Grape but soon included pottery, elegant glass, depression glass, and china items. Along with Roberta's collection members showed off cut glass, advertising and pipe ashtrays some of which featured match strikers or match holders.

John Feltes provided refreshments.

Marj Becker announced a temporary moratorium on pill bottles due to the cost of getting them to their destination. She will inform members when/if she has a local outlet where postage isn't required.

Harold Keller noted that he sold some "wedding toasting glasses" to former member Sue Dawson.

Show and Tell included:

Alex K. cut crystal goblet with a square stem...possibly European.

Judy K. a green opalescent footed bowl by Jefferson Glass - a gift from her daughter-in-law.

Ken G. a Cambridge square salt and pepper with original label.

Martie won the door prize.

The meeting adjourned about 8:45...Martie didn't note the exact time!!! Fire her!

Respectfully submitted,
Martie Grubenhoff, Secretary
