

ROCKY MOUNTAIN DEPRESSION GLASS SOCIETY
MINUTES

DATE: JANUARY 17, 2017
EPIPHANY LUTHERAN CHURCH
790 SOUTH CORONA
DENVER, CO

1. The meeting was called to order at 7:00 pm by President Lois Gould. Eighteen members were present; one guest was present (Jennifer Ferrini, Roberta's daughter).
2. The minutes of the November 2016 meeting were approved as sent to the membership, with one correction.
3. The report from the Treasurer is as follows:
The checking account balance is $11,434.99; savings is $1,056.69. There has been little expenditure activity; the rental for the room ($255) was paid. Lois will present a bill for tonight.

A fiscal summary sheet for 2016 was shared and is attached to the hard copy of these minutes. We had a deficit of $1,000 for the year 2016. We should be able to go until ten years at this rate.

4. Old business:

Discussion ensued regarding the year's programming. Program list 2017 was circulated. We need programs for the later months of the year. Harold and Lois will move their presentations.

5. New business/announcements

Please save this date: Larry and Marj Becker will celebrate their sixtieth wedding anniversary, this year. The celebration for this event will be Sunday, August 13 (God willing and the creek don't rise!). Invitations will be sent in early July.

January 21 - Superduper Garage Sale

Westminster Historical Society Appraisal Fair: February 25, 1-3pm; $20.00 admission includes appraisal of two items; Noah's Event Center

Eleanor will be moving back to Wisconsin full-time.

Steve Bass could not be here, tonight, because of other commitments (elbow surgery).

6. Delicious refreshments were provided by Lois Gould. Thank you, Lois.

7. Door prize winner: Martie Grubenhoff

8. There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 7:30 pm.
