The checking account balance is $11,502.98; savings is $10,562.43.
There has been little expenditure activity; the rent for the room was paid.
We have some additional memberships.
4. Old business: there was not old business to discuss.
5. New business/announcements
Program list 2017 was being circulated.
We have a program for January 2017" Ken and Martie Grubenhoff. However, we need programs for the other months of the year.
Roxanne Hughes passed because of pancreatic cancer. Ken Grubenhoff is at Swedish Hospital with a possibility of an angioplasty; awaiting consult by a kidney specialist.
Lois received an e-mail from someone who is doing a listing of shows. Do we want to take out an ad to list our meeting dates. Investigate the cost of this. Lois will check on this.
It was suggested that it might be possible to have our meeting location and times listed in the Colorado Collector for meeting; Tom will talk with publisher.
Marj Becker reported that on January 5, she will have a second shoulder surgery; she is unsure that she will be able to take the minutes for the January meeting.
Judy asked if any members have Noritake china as she would like to do a program on this china, but has a limited collection.
6. The program, "Colorado Pottery," was presented by Kathy Fay. She discussed Colorado pottery: Coors, Van Briggie; Queen City Pottery; Denver China and Pottery Company; Denver LON-HU-DA Pottery; Owens Pottery; Denver Terra Cotta; Broadmoor; Denver White; Lakewood; Garden of the Gods; Indian Hills Pottery
Delicious refreshments were provided by Lois Gould.
7. Several members shared items from their personal collections, as well as "finds" they have acquired.
8. Door prize winner: Marj Becker
9. There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 7:30 pm. The next meeting is Tuesday, January 17, 2017.
